QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

What is the purpose of the Annual Meeting?

At the Annual Meeting, stockholders will be asked to vote on the election of ten (10) members of the Board of Directors to serve until the next annual meeting of stockholders and until their successors are duly elected and qualified. The stockholders also will transact any other business that properly comes before the meeting.

Who may vote?

You may vote if you were a holder of record of shares of our common stock at the close of business on March 15, 2005 (the record date). On the record date, there were approximately 40,025,244 shares of common stock outstanding. The shares were held by approximately 2,226 holders of record. You are entitled to one vote for each share of common stock held by you as of the record date.

How do I cast my vote?

If you hold the shares in your own name, you can vote in person at the meeting or by signing and dating each proxy card you receive and returning it in the enclosed prepaid envelope. If you vote by proxy, the proxies identified on the back of the proxy card will vote your shares in accordance with your instructions. If you submit a signed proxy card but do not mark the boxes showing how you wish to vote, the proxies will vote your shares FOR the proposal.

In addition, the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders will be the first where Gaylord stockholders can vote using the Internet or by phone. To use the Internet, log onto www.proxyvote.com to transmit your voting instructions. Have your proxy card in hand when you access the web site and follow the instructions to obtain your records and to create an electronic voting instruction form. To vote by phone, dial 1-800-690-6903 using a touch-tone telephone. Have your proxy card in hand when you call and then follow the instructions.

What if my shares are held in “street name” by a broker?

If you do not own your shares directly, but instead are the beneficial owner of shares held in “street name” by a broker, your broker, as the record holder of the shares, must vote those shares in accordance with your instructions. If you do not give instructions to your broker, your broker can vote your shares with respect to “discretionary” items, but not with respect to “non-discretionary” items. On non-discretionary items for which you do not give instructions, the shares will be treated as “broker non-votes.” A discretionary item is a proposal that is considered routine under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange. Shares held in street name may be voted by your broker on discretionary items in the absence of voting instructions given by you. The proposal to be presented at the Annual Meeting is considered routine and therefore may be voted upon by your broker if you do not give instructions for the shares held by your broker.

How are shares in the Company’s 401(k) Savings Plan voted?

Participants in the Company’s 401(k) Savings Plan are entitled to vote the shares held under the 401(k) Savings Plan in their name. To do this you must sign and timely return the proxy card you received with this Proxy Statement or, if you received the proxy materials via email, follow the voting instructions contained in the email. Your proxy card will be considered your confidential voting instructions, and the 401(k) Savings Plan trustee will direct your vote in the manner you indicate. In order to do this, the proxy results for the shares held in the 401(k) Savings Plan will be tabulated for all plan participants and reported to the 401(k) Savings Plan trustee on an aggregate basis. The overall vote tallies will not show how individual participants voted. The trustee will vote the shares at the meeting through the custodian holding the shares. If a plan participant’s voting instruction is not received by our transfer agent before the meeting, or if the proxy is revoked by the participant before the meeting, the shares held by that participant will be considered unvoted. All unvoted shares in the plan will be voted at the Annual Meeting by the 401(k) Savings Plan trustee.

What shares are included on my proxy card?

Your proxy card represents all shares registered in your name with the transfer agent on the record date, including those shares owned pursuant to the Company's 401(k) Savings Plan.

How many shares must be present to hold the Annual Meeting?

The holders of a majority of the shares of our common stock outstanding on the record date, or 20,012,623 shares, in person or by a valid proxy, must be present at the meeting for any business to be conducted, known as a "quorum." Proxies received but marked as "withhold authority" and "broker non-votes" will be counted as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

What if a quorum is not present at the Annual Meeting?

If a quorum is not present at the scheduled time of the Annual Meeting, we may adjourn the Annual Meeting, either with or without a vote of the stockholders. If we propose to have the stockholders vote whether to adjourn the meeting, the people named in the enclosed proxy will vote all shares of our common stock for which they have voting authority in favor of the adjournment. We also may adjourn the meeting if for any reason we believe that additional time should be allowed for the solicitation of proxies. An adjournment will have no effect on the business that may be conducted at the Annual Meeting.

How does the Board recommend I vote on the proposal?

The Board recommends that you vote FOR the election of each nominee to the Board.

How do I change my vote?

You can revoke your proxy at any time before the meeting by:

- submitting a later-dated proxy card by mail, internet or phone (as provided above under "How do I cast my vote?");
- giving written notice to Carter R. Todd, the Secretary of the Company, stating that you are revoking your proxy; or
- attending the Annual Meeting and voting your shares in person.

Who will count the votes?

Representatives of our transfer agent, SunTrust Bank, will count the votes and act as the independent inspectors of the election.

What if I send in my proxy card and do not specify how my shares are to be voted?

If you send in a signed proxy but do not give any voting instructions, your shares will be voted FOR election of the ten (10) nominees to the Board of Directors.

How will the proxies vote on any other business brought up at the Annual Meeting?

We are not aware of any business to be considered at the Annual Meeting other than the proposals described in this proxy statement. If any other business is properly presented at the meeting, your signed proxy card authorizes Colin V. Reed, Robert P. Bowen and Carter R. Todd to use their discretion to vote on these other matters.

What are my voting options on the proposal?

You have three choices on the proposal to be voted upon at the Annual Meeting. You may: (a) vote for all of the director nominees as a group; (b) withhold authority to vote for all director nominees as a group; or (c) vote for all director nominees as a group except those nominees you identify on the appropriate line.

How many votes are required to approve the proposal?

Pursuant to our bylaws, directors must be elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares present (in person or by proxy) and entitled to vote for the election of directors. This means that the ten (10) nominees receiving the greatest number of votes will be elected as directors. If you withhold authority to vote for a director, your withholding authority will have no effect on the outcome. Broker non-votes also will have no effect on the voting outcome of the election of directors.

For any other matter that properly comes before the meeting, the affirmative vote of the majority of votes cast will be required for approval. A proxy card marked "ABSTAIN" will not be counted "for" or "against" any such matter and, if the matter is non-discretionary, broker non-votes will not be counted "for" or "against" any such matter. As noted above, if any other matter properly comes before the meeting, your signed proxy card authorizes Colin V. Reed, Robert P. Bowen and Carter R. Todd to use their discretion to vote on any such matter.

Is my vote confidential?

Yes. All proxy cards and vote tabulations that identify an individual stockholder are kept confidential. Except to meet legal requirements, your vote will not be disclosed to the Company unless:

- a proxy solicitation is contested;
- you write comments on the proxy card; or
- you authorize disclosure of your vote.

This policy does not prevent the Company from ascertaining which stockholders have voted or from taking actions designed to encourage stockholder voting.

How is this proxy solicitation being conducted?

The Company will bear the cost of soliciting proxies for the Annual Meeting. We have retained Automatic Data Processing, Inc. to assist in the solicitation and will pay approximately $3,000 for its assistance. Our officers and employees may also solicit proxies by mail, telephone, e-mail or facsimile transmission. They will not be paid additional remuneration for their efforts. Upon request, we will reimburse brokers, dealers, banks and trustees, or their nominees, for reasonable expenses incurred by them in forwarding proxy material to beneficial owners of shares of our common stock.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

You may vote on the election of ten (10) directors to the Board of Directors.

The current Board of Directors consists of ten (10) directors. All of our directors are elected annually. Ten (10) directors will be elected at the Annual Meeting. All of the nominees are currently directors of the Company. The Board expects all of the nominees named below to be available for election. In case any nominee is not available, the person or persons voting the proxies may vote your shares for such other person or persons designated by the Board if you have submitted a proxy card.

Directors will be elected by a plurality of the shares present (in person or by proxy) and entitled to vote for the election of directors. Corporate Governance

Our business is managed under the direction of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors delegates the conduct of the business to our senior management team. The Board of Directors held 6 meetings during 2004. All incumbent directors attended at least 75% of the Board meetings and meetings of the committees of the Board on which the directors served during their tenure on the Board.

In 2003, the Company adopted Corporate Governance Guidelines governing the conduct of its Board of Directors. The charters of our Audit Committee, Human Resources Committee and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee as well as our Corporate Governance Guidelines are all posted on the Company’s web site at www.gaylordentertainment.com under the “Investor Relations” link. In addition, the Company will provide a copy of its Corporate Governance Guidelines, including charters of each of these committees, upon receipt of a written request addressed to Gaylord Entertainment Company, Attn: Corporate Secretary, One Gaylord Drive, Nashville, Tennessee 37214. In 2004, the Company’s non-management directors began to meet in regularly scheduled executive sessions, and they selected Ralph Horn to serve as the presiding or lead director of these executive sessions. A description of the duties of the Company’s lead director is also available at the same location on the Company’s website.

The Company has adopted a Code of Ethics which is applicable to all employees, officers and directors of the Company, including the principal executive officer, the principal financial officer and the principal accounting officer. The Code of Ethics is available on the Company’s web site at www.gaylordentertainment.com under the “Investor Relations” link. Board Member Attendance at Annual Meeting

The Company strongly encourages each member of the Board of Directors to attend the Annual Meeting of Stockholders. All of the Company’s directors who were in office at the time of the 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders attended the 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Director Independence

Pursuant to the Company’s Corporate Governance Guidelines, the Board undertook its annual review of director independence in February 2005. Our Board of Directors determines the independence of its members through a broad consideration of all relevant facts and circumstances, including an assessment of the materiality of any relationship between the Company and a director. In making this assessment, the Board looks not only at relationships from the director’s standpoint, but also at relationships of persons or organizations with which the director has an affiliation. In making its determination, the Board of Directors adheres to the requirements of, and applies the standards set forth by, both the New York Stock Exchange (as set forth in Section 303A.02) and the Securities and Exchange Commission.

During this review, the Board considered transactions and relationships between each director, or any member of his or her immediate family, and the Company and its subsidiaries and affiliates. The Board also examined transactions and relationships between directors, or their affiliates, and members of the Company’s senior management or their affiliates. The purpose of this review was to determine whether any of these relationships or transactions were inconsistent with a determination that the director is independent. As a result of this review, the Board affirmatively determined that, with the exception of Colin V. Reed and

Michael D. Rose (both of whom are executive officers of the Company), all of the directors nominated for election at the Annual Meeting are independent of the Company and its management.

Committees of the Board

The Board has three regularly standing committees: an Audit Committee, a Human Resources Committee and a Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

The Audit Committee

The members of the Audit Committee are Robert P. Bowen (Chairman), Laurence S. Geller, E. Gordon Gee, Michael J. Bender and Michael I. Roth. The members of the Audit Committee are independent and financially literate as required by the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. Additionally, Robert P. Bowen is an "audit committee financial expert" as defined under the rules adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission and is independent within the meaning of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The Audit Committee is responsible for:

- overseeing the integrity of the Company's financial information, the performance of the internal audit function and system of internal controls and compliance with legal and regulatory requirements relating to preparation of financial information;
- appointing, compensating, retaining and overseeing the Company's independent registered public accounting firm;
- evaluating the qualifications, independence and performance of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm;
- meeting with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm and with our director of internal audit concerning, among other things, the scope of audits and reports; and
- reviewing the work programs of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm and the results of its audits.

In 2004, the Audit Committee met 7 times.

The Human Resources Committee

The members of the Human Resources Committee are E. Gordon Gee (Chairman), E.K. Gaylord II, Robert P. Bowen, Ralph Horn and Ellen Levine. All of the members of this committee are independent within the meaning of the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange.

The Human Resources Committee is responsible for:

- reviewing and approving all compensation policies and programs that benefit employees, including employment and severance agreements, incentive programs, benefits and retirement programs;
- reviewing and approving the Chief Executive Officer's objectives, performance and compensation;
- administering the Company's 1997 Omnibus Stock Option and Incentive Plan; and
- reviewing and approving compensation for executive officers and directors.

In 2004, the Human Resources Committee met 5 times.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

The members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee are Ralph Horn (Chairman), Michael I. Roth and Laurence S. Geller. All of the members of this committee are independent within the meaning of the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange.

Table of Contents

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for:

- developing and recommending criteria for the selection of new directors and recommending to the Board nominees for election as directors and appointment to committees;
- developing and recommending changes and modifications to our corporate governance guidelines and a code of conduct to the Board;
- monitoring and enforcing compliance with the corporate governance guidelines, certain provisions of the code of conduct and other policies of the Company; and
- advising the Board on corporate governance matters.

In 2004, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee met 4 times. A formal Board evaluation covering Board operations and performance, with a written evaluation from each Board member, is conducted annually by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee to enhance Board effectiveness. Recommended changes are considered by the full Board. In addition, each Board committee conducts an annual self-evaluation.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee considers candidates for Board membership recommended by its members and other Board members, as well as by management and stockholders. The Committee will only consider stockholder nominees for Board membership submitted in accordance with the procedures set forth in “Additional Information — Stockholder Nominations of Candidates for Board Membership.”

Once the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has identified a prospective nominee, the Committee makes an initial determination as to whether to conduct a full evaluation of the candidate. This initial determination is based on whatever information is provided to the Committee with the recommendation of the prospective candidate, as well as the Committee’s own knowledge of the prospective candidate, which may be supplemented by inquiries to the person making the recommendation or others. The preliminary determination is based primarily on the need for additional Board members to fill vacancies or expand the size of the Board and the likelihood that the prospective nominee can satisfy the evaluation factors described below. If the Committee determines, in consultation with the Chairman of the Board and other Board members as appropriate, that additional consideration is warranted, it may request additional information about the prospective nominee’s background and experience. The Committee then evaluates the prospective nominee against the following standards and qualifications:

- the ability of the prospective nominee to represent the interests of the stockholders of the Company;
- the prospective nominee’s standards of integrity, commitment and independence of thought and judgment;
- the prospective nominee’s ability to dedicate sufficient time, energy and attention to the diligent performance of his or her duties, including the prospective nominee’s service on other boards; and
- the extent to which the prospective nominee contributes to the range of knowledge, skill and experience appropriate for the Board.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee also considers such other relevant factors as it deems appropriate, including the current composition of the Board and the evaluations of other prospective nominees. In connection with this evaluation, the Committee determines whether to interview the prospective nominee, and if warranted, one or more members of the Committee, and others as appropriate, will interview prospective nominees in person or by telephone. After completing this evaluation and interview, the Committee makes a recommendation to the full Board as to the persons who should be nominated by the Board, and the Board determines the nominees after considering the recommendation and report of the Committee.

Michael J. Bender and Ellen Levine, who were elected since the last annual meeting of stockholders, were initially recommended as nominees by the Company’s outside directors. New directors participate in an orientation program that includes (i) discussions with senior management, (ii) background materials on the Company's strategic plan, organization and financial statements and (iii) visits to the Company's facilities. The Company encourages each director to participate in continuing educational programs that are important to maintaining a director's level of expertise to perform his or her responsibilities as a Board member.

Communications with Members of the Board

Stockholders, employees and other parties interested in communicating directly with members of the Company's Board of Directors (including our non-management directors) may do so by writing to Corporate Secretary, Gaylord Entertainment Company, One Gaylord Drive, Nashville, Tennessee 37214. As set forth in the Corporate Governance Guidelines, the Corporate Secretary of the Company reviews all such correspondence and regularly forwards to the Board a summary of all such correspondence and copies of all correspondence that, in the opinion of the Corporate Secretary, deals with the functions of the Board or committees thereof or that he otherwise determines requires their attention. Directors may at any time review a log of all correspondence received by the Company that is addressed to members of the Board and request copies of any such correspondence. Concerns relating to accounting, internal controls or auditing matters are immediately brought to the attention of the Company's internal audit department and handled in accordance with procedures established by the Audit Committee with respect to such matters. In addition, stockholders, employees and other interested parties may communicate directly with the Company's lead non-management director (Mr. Ralph Horn), individual non-management directors, or the non-management directors as group by email at boardofdirectors@gaylordentertainment.com.

Matters may be reported as follows:

- or contact the Company's General Counsel:

Carter R. Todd

Compensation of Directors

The Human Resources Committee reviews and recommends the compensation for directors. During 2004, each of our non-management directors received an annual Board retainer of $30,000, an annual retainer for service on the audit committee of $10,000 ($15,000 for chairpersons) and an annual retainer for service on any other committee of $7,500 ($12,500 for chairpersons). The annual Board retainer will increase to $40,000 commencing with the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (all other Board fees will remain the same in 2005 as in 2004). No additional fees are paid for special meetings. Pursuant to the Company's Deferred Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors, non-employee directors may defer these fees into this plan until their retirement or resignation from the Board. Three of the directors have elected to participate in this deferred compensation plan.

Upon election to the Board, non-employee directors also receive a one-time grant of a non-qualified stock option to purchase 10,000 shares of common stock under the 1997 Omnibus Stock Option and Incentive Plan, at an exercise price equal to the closing price on the date prior to the date of the grant, which becomes exercisable in four equal annual installments. In addition, each non-management director receives an annual grant of a non-qualified stock option to purchase 5,000 shares of common stock under the 1997 Omnibus Stock Option and Incentive Plan, at an exercise price equal to the closing price on the date prior to the date of the grant, which becomes exercisable on the first anniversary of the date of grant.

Directors who are employed by the Company do not receive compensation for their service as directors. All directors are reimbursed for expenses incurred in attending meetings.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

During 2004, Martin Dickinson, a former director of the Company, and Messrs. Gaylord II, Gee, Bowen, Horn and Levine served on the Human Resources Committee of the Board. None of these directors was an officer or employee of the Company during 2004. Mr. Gaylord II served as interim President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company from late July until September 2000, and as Vice-Chairman of the Board from May 1996 to May 1999.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

Unless otherwise indicated, each person or entity named in the table has sole voting and investment power, or shares voting and investment power with his or her spouse, with respect to all shares of stock listed as owned by that person. The number of shares shown does not include the interest of certain persons in shares held by family members in their own right. Fees for audit-related services provided by Ernst & Young totaled $53,223 during 2004 and $125,738 during 2003. The fees for audit-related services during 2004 and 2003 related to audits of the Company's benefit plans, certain due diligence and assistance with transactions contemplated or completed by the Company during 2004 and 2003, and the audit of a subsidiary of the Company.

Tax Fees

Fees for tax services provided by Ernst & Young totaled $118,038 during 2004 and $620,982 during 2003. All Other Fees

There were no fees for other services provided by Ernst & Young in 2004 or 2003. Ernst & Young did not provide professional services during 2004 or 2003 related to financial information systems design and implementation.

All audit, audit-related services, tax services and other services were pre-approved by the Audit Committee, which concluded that the provision of such services by Ernst & Young was compatible with the maintenance of that firm's independence in the conduct of its auditing functions. The Audit Committee's Outside Auditor Independence Policy provides for pre-approval of audit, audit-related services, tax services and other services specifically described by the Committee on an annual basis and, in addition, individual engagements anticipated to exceed pre-established thresholds must be separately approved. The policy also requires specific approval by the Committee if total fees for audit-related and tax services would exceed total fees for audit services in any fiscal year. The policy authorizes the Committee to delegate to one or more of its members pre-approval authority with respect to permitted services.

Audit Committee Report

The following Report of the Audit Committee does not constitute soliciting material and should not be deemed filed or incorporated by reference into any other Company filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent the Company specifically incorporates this Report by reference therein.

The Audit Committee operates under written charter adopted by the Board of Directors on February 4, 2004. The Committee reviews and reassesses the adequacy of the charter at least once each year. During the fall of 2004, the Gaylord Audit Committee conducted a self evaluation in order to assess the effectiveness of the Committee, and at its November 2004 meeting, the Audit Committee members discussed the results of the self evaluation process.

The Audit Committee reviews the financial information provided to stockholders and others, oversees the performance of the internal audit function and the systems of internal controls which management and the Board of Directors have established, oversees compliance with legal and regulatory requirements by the Company and its employees relating to the preparation of financial information and reviews the independent registered public accounting firm's qualifications, independence and performance. As part of its oversight of the Company's financial statements, the Audit Committee has (i) reviewed and discussed the Company's audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004, and the financial statements for the three years ended December 31, 2004, with management and Ernst & Young LLP, the Company's independent registered public accounting firm; (ii) discussed with the independent registered public accounting firm the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Codification of Statements on Auditing Standards, as modified or supplemented; and (iii) received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent registered public accounting firm required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, and has discussed with the independent registered public accounting firm its independence. The Audit Committee also has considered whether the provision by Ernst & Young LLP of non-audit services described in this proxy statement under the caption "Fee Information" is compatible with maintaining the independence of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

The Audit Committee's review and discussion of the audited financial statements with management included a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements. In addressing the quality of management's accounting judgments, members of the Audit Committee asked for management's representations that the audited consolidated financial statements of the Company have been prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, and have expressed to both management and the Company's independent registered public accounting firm their general preference for conservative policies when a range of accounting options is available.

In performing these functions, the Audit Committee acts in an oversight capacity. The Committee does not complete all of its reviews prior to the Company's public announcements of financial results and, necessarily, in its oversight role, the Committee relies on the work and assurances of the Company's management, which has the primary responsibility for financial statements and reports, and of the independent registered public accounting firm, who, in its report, express an opinion on the conformity of the Company's annual financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles.

In reliance on these reviews and discussions and the report of the independent registered public accounting firm, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

AUDIT COMMITTEE:

ROBERT P. BOWEN, CHAIRMAN
LAURENCE S. GELLER

Pension Plans

The Company maintains one defined benefit plan pursuant to which any Named Executive Officer received compensation in 2004, the Custom Non-Qualified Mid-Career Supplemental Employee Retirement Plan (the "SERP"). The purpose of the SERP is to provide Mr. Reed with a retirement benefit having a present value of $2.5 million. The benefit accrues 25% on April 23 of each year, beginning in 2002, and is payable at the expiration of his amended employment term as discussed below. On August 17, 2004, the Company and Mr. Reed entered into an amendment to his employment agreement extending the term of his employment as President and Chief Executive Officer through May 1, 2008. As a part of the amendment to his employment agreement, the Company agreed to pay Mr. Reed an additional SERP which would have a value of $1.0 million (as adjusted for hypothetical investment earnings (or losses)) on April 23, 2010, provided that Mr. Reed continued to be employed by the Company through such date. In addition, Mr. Reed may receive a pro rata portion of his SERP benefit if he is terminated by the Company prior to the completion of the amended employment term.

Employment, Severance and Change in Control Arrangements

The Company has entered into the agreements described below regarding employment, termination of employment and change in control with the Named Executive Officers. Disclosure is also provided below on the Company's 2004 employment agreement with Michael D. Rose. In addition to any benefits Named Executive Officers may be entitled to receive in connection with a change in control under the terms of these agreements, any awards they have received under the 1997 Omnibus Stock Option and Incentive Plan will become immediately exercisable or vest.

Colin V. Reed

On April 23, 2001, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Reed that expires on April 22, 2005. On August 17, 2004, the Company and Mr. Reed entered into an amendment to that agreement extending the term of his employment as President and Chief Executive Officer through May 1, 2008. The amendment also provides that, subject to standard conditions such as stockholder approval, Mr. Reed will become Chairman of the Board, effective at the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. In connection with approving the amendment to Mr. Reed's employment agreement, the Company's Human Resources Committee held a series of meetings in 2004 to consider various employment proposals, engaged independent legal counsel to represent them in the negotiations, and retained a compensation consultant to advise on the fairness of the new employment terms.

Pursuant to the employment agreement as amended, the Company agreed to pay Mr. Reed his current annual base salary of $750,000, subject to annual increases in the discretion of the Human Resources Committee of the Board of Directors. Under this agreement, Mr. Reed may receive performance-based bonuses of up to 150% of his base salary in each year of the agreement's term. In addition, Mr. Reed is entitled to receive certain benefits and equity-based incentives.

Under the original employment agreement, the Company agreed to pay Mr. Reed a supplemental executive retirement benefit or SERP which would have a value of $2.5 million upon the expiration of his initial employment agreement. As a part of the amendment to the employment agreement, the Company agreed to pay Mr. Reed an additional SERP which would have a value of $1.0 million (as adjusted for hypothetical investment earnings (or losses)) on April 23, 2010, provided that Mr. Reed continued to be employed by the Company through such date. The additional SERP benefit vests ratably over 5 years starting on April 23, 2005.

Upon the termination of Mr. Reed's employment by the Company for cause, by Mr. Reed without good reason, or by reason of his death or disability, Mr. Reed is generally entitled to any accrued but unpaid salary or bonus, certain accrued and vested benefits and vested equity compensation. In addition, if his employment is terminated by reason of his death or disability, he is entitled to a pro-rata portion of his bonus and all of his options become immediately exercisable, and in the case of his death, all of his restricted stock becomes vested. If Mr. Reed's employment is terminated by the Company without cause or by Mr. Reed for good reason, he is entitled to a payment equal to two times his base salary for the year in which the termination occurs plus two times his annual bonus for the preceding year and certain benefits and equity compensation.

In addition, the amendment to Mr. Reed's employment agreement provides that if he is terminated by the Company without cause or he terminates for good reason, he will be entitled to the immediate vesting of up to $600,000 of his additional SERP benefit. In such case, Mr. Reed would also receive the immediate vesting of a pro-rata portion (based on his length of service with the Company) of his restricted stock units under the Company's performance accelerated restricted stock unit program (Mr. Reed's 170,000 restricted stock units under this program would normally cliff vest on February 1, 2008).

In the event that Mr. Reed's employment is terminated by the Company without cause or by Mr. Reed with good reason within one year of a change of control, he is entitled to a payment equal to three times his base salary for the year in which the termination occurs plus three times his annual bonus for the preceding year, any accrued or vested benefits and any awards of equity compensation (which awards' vesting will be accelerated and Mr. Reed will have two years in which to exercise any options). Mr. Reed is also entitled to be reimbursed for any excise taxes he incurs. A “change of control” is deemed to occur if (i) any person, other than the Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary, a benefit plan of the Company or certain affiliates, becomes the beneficial owner of 35% or more of the outstanding voting stock of the Company, (ii) a majority of the incumbent members of the Board of Directors cease to serve on the Board without the consent of the incumbent Board, (iii) following a merger, tender or exchange offer, other business combination or contested election the holders of the Company’s stock prior to the transaction hold less than a majority of the combined voting power of the surviving entity, or (iv) the Company sells all or substantially all of its assets.

This agreement contains covenants restricting Mr. Reed’s use and disclosure of confidential information, solicitation of certain employees and interference with the Company’s business opportunities.

Michael D. Rose

Effective May 1, 2004, the Company entered into a new five-year employment agreement with Michael D. Rose employing him as Chairman of the Board until the May 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. After the May 2005 Annual Meeting (during the last four years of his employment term) and subject to certain standard conditions such as election by the stockholders, Mr. Rose shall perform the duties of the Chairman of the Company’s Executive Committee (as described in the Company’s Corporate Governance Guidelines, as amended from time to time), and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors.

During the first year of his employment term (May 1, 2004 through April 30, 2005), Mr. Rose’s annual base salary is $350,000 for his services as Chairman of the Board. During the second year of the term (May 1, 2005 through April 30, 2006), Mr. Rose will receive base compensation of $250,000 for his services as Chairman of the Executive Committee. During the last three years of his employment term, Mr. Rose will receive a salary equal to the other directors who hold Board committee chair positions (other than the Audit Committee chair) for his service as Chairman of the Executive Committee.

In the event of the termination of Mr. Rose’s employment by reason of his death, he is entitled to receive any accrued but unpaid salary and immediate vesting of certain equity compensation. In the event that Mr. Rose’s employment is terminated by reason of his disability, he is entitled to receive his salary and certain benefits until he becomes eligible for long term disability benefits, and certain vested equity compensation. If Mr. Rose is terminated with cause or terminates his employment without good reason he is entitled to receive his accrued but unpaid salary and certain vested equity compensation. Upon termination of Mr. Rose’s employment by the Company without cause or by Mr. Rose for good reason, Mr. Rose is entitled to receive accrued but unpaid salary and immediate vesting of all equity compensation. If Mr. Rose no longer serves the Company following the expiration of the initial term of the agreement, all equity compensation will immediately vest.

If, within one year of a change of control (as defined above) that occurs prior to April 30, 2006, Mr. Rose’s employment is terminated by the Company without cause or by Mr. Rose with good reason, he is entitled to a payment equal to three times his base salary for the year in which the termination occurs, any accrued or vested benefits and immediate vesting of all equity compensation. If, within one year of a change of control occurring after April 30, 2006, Mr. Rose’s employment is terminated by the Company without cause or by Mr. Rose with good reason, he is entitled to receive a payment equal to the remainder of his various payments under his employment agreement, any accrued or vested benefits and immediate vesting of all equity compensation.

This agreement contains covenants restricting Mr. Rose’s use and disclosure of confidential information, solicitation of certain employees and interference with the Company’s business opportunities.

David C. Kloeppe

The Company entered into an employment agreement with David C. Kloeppe (Chief Financial Officer) that expires September 3, 2005. The Company agreed to pay Mr. Kloeppe an annual salary of $400,000, subject to annual increases in the discretion of the Human Resources Committee. Mr. Kloeppe may receive performance-based bonuses of up to 150% of his base salary in each year of this agreement's term. In addition, Mr. Kloeppeel is entitled to receive certain benefits and equity-based incentives.

Upon the termination of Mr. Kloeppeel's employment by the Company for cause, by Mr. Kloeppeel without good reason, or by reason of his death or disability, Mr. Kloeppeel is generally entitled to any accrued but unpaid salary or bonus, certain accrued and vested benefits and vested equity compensation. In addition, if his employment is terminated by reason of his death or disability, he is entitled to a pro rata portion of his bonus and all of his options become immediately exercisable, and in the case of his death, all of his restricted stock becomes vested. If Mr. Kloeppeel's employment is terminated by the Company without cause or by Mr. Kloeppeel for good reason, he is entitled to a payment equal to two times his base salary for the year in which the termination occurs plus two times his annual bonus for the preceding year and certain benefits and equity compensation.

If, within one year of a change of control, Mr. Kloeppeel's employment is terminated by the Company without cause or by Mr. Kloeppeel with good reason, he is entitled to a payment equal to two times his base salary for the year in which the termination occurs plus two times his annual bonus for the preceding year, any accrued or vested benefits and any awards of equity compensation (which awards' vesting will be accelerated). Mr. Kloeppeel is also entitled to be reimbursed for any excise taxes he incurs. A "change of control" is deemed to occur if (i) any person, other than the Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary, a benefit plan of the Company or certain affiliates, becomes the beneficial owner of a majority of the outstanding voting stock of the Company, (ii) any person becomes the beneficial owner of a greater amount of the voting stock than the amount owned, directly or indirectly, by Edward L. Gaylord or a member of his immediate family, (iii) following a merger, tender or exchange offer, other business combination or contested election the holders of the Company's stock prior to the transaction hold less than a majority of the combined voting power of the surviving entity, or (iv) the Company sells all or substantially all of its assets.

This agreement contains covenants restricting Mr. Kloeppeel's use and disclosure of confidential information, solicitation of certain employees and interference with the Company's business opportunities.

Form of Employment Agreement for Messrs. Sevigny, Fioravanti, and Caparella

On July 15, 2003, the Company entered into employment agreements with each of Jay D. Sevigny (Chief Operating Officer of Gaylord Hotels), Mark Fioravanti (President of ResortQuest), and John Caparella (General Manger of the Gaylord Palms) that expire on July 15, 2007. Each agreement automatically renews for additional one-year terms unless either party elects not to renew at least 90 days prior to the expiration of the term. Each employment agreement provides that upon the termination of his employment by the Company for cause, by the executive without good reason, or by reason of his death or disability, the executive is generally entitled to any accrued but unpaid salary or bonus, certain accrued and vested benefits and vested equity compensation. In addition, if the executive's employment is terminated by the Company without cause or by the executive for good reason, he is entitled to a payment equal to his base salary for the year in which the termination occurs plus a prorata portion of his annual bonus for the current year provided he has been employed for more than six months in the current year.

In the event that the executive's employment is terminated by the Company without cause or by the executive with good reason within one year of a change of control, he is entitled to a payment equal to two times his base salary for the year in which the termination occurs plus two times his average annual bonus for the prior three calendar years, any accrued or vested benefits and any awards of equity compensation. A "change of control" is deemed to occur if (i) any person, other than the Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary, a benefit plan of the Company or certain affiliates, becomes the beneficial owner of a majority of the outstanding voting stock of the Company, (ii) following a merger, tender or exchange offer, other business combination or contested election, the holders of the Company's stock prior to the transaction hold less than a majority of the combined voting power of the surviving entity, or (iii) the Company sells all or substantially all of its assets.

Human Resources Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The following Report of the Human Resources Committee and the performance graph included elsewhere in this proxy statement do not constitute soliciting material and should not be deemed filed or incorporated by reference into any other Company filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent the Company specifically incorporates this Report or the performance graphs by reference therein.

The Human Resources Committee of the Board of Directors reviews and approves the annual compensation of the Company's executive officers and other key management personnel. In addition, the Human Resources Committee establishes policies and guidelines for other benefits and administers compensation and certain other benefit plans, including the awards of stock and stock options pursuant to the 1997 Omnibus Stock Option and Incentive Plan. The Human Resources Committee is assisted in making compensation decisions by the Company's management and the Company's independent professional compensation consultants. During the fall of 2004, the Human Resources Committee conducted a self-evaluation in order to assess the effectiveness of the Committee and at its November 2004 meeting, the Human Resources Committee members discussed the results of the self-evaluation process.

Compensation Policies Applicable to Executive Officers

The principal objective of the Company is to maximize stockholder value through the development and enhancement of the Company's primary business units: Hospitality, Opry and Attractions, ResortQuest and Corporate and Other.

To further that objective, the Company's executive compensation program is designed to:

- provide competitive pay for the position and the market;
- attract, retain and reward management personnel;
- align executive and stockholder interests by rewarding performance that enhances stockholder value; and
- provide appropriate incentives for executives to achieve Company, business unit and individual performance goals.

At its first regular meeting of the year, the Human Resources Committee reviews management's performance during the prior year, adopts compensation policies for the current year, reviews the Company's incentive compensation plans and rewards, and establishes each executive's compensation and performance goals. The Human Resources Committee, however, may adjust an executive's total compensation at any time during the year in light of increased job responsibilities or particularly meritorious performance.

An executive's total compensation is composed of three primary components: base salary compensation, annual incentive compensation and long-term incentive compensation. Each component is based on Company and group or unit performance factors which are measured objectively and subjectively by the Human Resources Committee.

Base Salary Compensation

The 2004 base salary compensation of the Company's executive officers was based on several factors. In general, the Human Resources Committee sought to establish base salaries at or near the 50th percentile of base compensation paid by companies within the lodging, attractions and vacation rental industries with whom the Company believes it competes for executive talent exercising responsibilities similar to those of executives with the Company, as confirmed by an independent compensation consultant. Base salaries were adjusted by the Human Resources Committee, however, to reflect other factors such as an individual executive officer's performance and base salary during the prior year.

Annual Incentive Compensation

The Company's annual cash bonus program was adopted in February 2002. The annual bonus plan is designed to motivate participants by directly linking the payment of bonuses to the attainment of annual financial performance goals for the Company and each business unit. The Human Resources Committee approved the specific financial performance goals for the Company and each business unit and the amounts of the bonus pools to be established upon attainment of these goals for 2004. Under the bonus plan, if the "threshold" performance goal (90% of the target performance) is achieved, payouts as a percent of salary range from 5% to 30%, depending on grade level. In the event that the "target" goal is attained, payouts as a percent of salary range from 10% to 60%. In the event that the target performance goal is exceeded (150% of the target performance) payouts as a percent of salary range from 15% to 90%. The percentage of salary awarded for performance falling between the "threshold" and "stretch" goals is to be based on a graduated scale commensurate with the results. In addition to the attainment of Company and business unit financial performance, the Human Resources committee will also consider whether the participant's annual performance objectives were obtained. For a discussion of the CEO's bonus criteria, see the section below under the heading "CEO Compensation."

Long-Term Incentive Compensation

The Human Resources Committee believes that a powerful way of aligning the long-term interests of executive officers with those of stockholders is to award equity-based compensation in the form of stock options and restricted stock. In February of 2003, the Human Resources Committee and the Board considered and approved a long-term incentive plan. The purpose of the plan is to provide incentives and rewards to senior management based upon long-term performance of the Company's strategic plan and stock price appreciation, in a manner that aligns management's goals with stockholder interests. Under the approved plan, our executives are categorized into a "tier," with the members of each tier receiving awards of stock options and, for some tiers, grants of restricted stock based upon the accomplishment of annual criteria that collectively move the Company toward the accomplishment of the Company's long range strategic plan. All stock options awarded vest ratably over a four-year period, with one-fourth vesting annually beginning the first year after the date of grant, and have an exercise price equal to the market price on the date of the award. Generally, restricted stock awards vest over a four-year period, with one-fourth vesting annually beginning the first year after the date of the grant.

As another feature of our long-term incentive plan, our executive officers participate in a Performance Accelerated Restricted Stock Unit Program (the "PARSUP Program"). This PARSUP Program is designed to motivate and retain the Company's key executives in the Company's current competitive environment and with a view to enhancing shareholder value. Pursuant to the PARSUP Program, certain key executives were granted restricted stock unit awards (the "Restricted Units") pursuant to the Company's 1997 Omnibus Stock Option and Incentive Plan (the "Plan"). The first awards under the PARSUP Program were issued in May of 2003, and a total of 530,000 Restricted Units were issued to a total of 17 officers. Currently, 19 officers are participants in the Program and a total of 596,000 Restricted Units have been awarded and are outstanding.

These awards fully vest on February 1, 2008, if the participating executive continues in active employment with the Company until that date. Portions of the PARSUP Restrictive Units are eligible for earlier annual performance vesting at the rate of 25% non-cumulative annual installments in each of 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2008 based on the Company's financial performance in each of those years, and the remaining unvested shares will vest on February 1, 2008. The performance targets for the PARSUP Program are recommended by the Human Resources Committee and approved by the Board and can be modified in the same manner. To date, none of the PARSUP Restricted Units have early vested.

If a change in control occurs (as defined in the Plan), the unvested PARSUP Restricted Units will vest. If a participant is on salary continuation and a change in control occurs, the participant would only be entitled to the next 25% vesting installment of PARSUP Restricted Units not otherwise earned.

The Human Resources Committee has broad flexibility to oversee and amend the PARSUP Program and, with Board approval, can modify performance criteria and specific financial targets. The Human Resources Committee also has the right to make exceptions based on unusual factors or events. To help alleviate the tax burden of the PARSUP Program on participants and to provide an incentive for executives to continue in employment, the Human Resources Committee has approved a program whereby participants can defer the receipt of their vested PARSUP Program Restricted Units. The Restricted Units can be deferred to a specific date in the future or to the participant's termination of employment date, whichever occurs first. The participant can elect a lump sum distribution of shares on the deferral date (or one year after that date) or can elect annual installment of shares over five years. See the Summary Compensation Table for more information on grants under the PARSUP Program to the Company's Named Executive Officers.

CEO Compensation

In reviewing and approving the compensation offered to Mr. Reed under the terms of his amended employment agreement, the Human Resources Committee considered many of the same criteria relied upon with respect to the other executive officers, including the compensation of peer group executives within the lodging, attractions and vacation rental industries and the nature of the responsibilities of Mr. Reed as President and Chief Executive Officer.

Based upon these factors, the Human Resources Committee approved compensation for Mr. Reed for 2004 in the form of base salary of $750,000 (up from $700,000 in 2002 and 2003), equity compensation, consisting of options to purchase 75,000 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price equal to the market price immediately preceding the award of the options, and the opportunity to be paid a performance bonus for 2004 in an amount equal to up to 100% of his base salary based upon the Company's achievement of performance targets mutually agreed to by Mr. Reed and the Board, including the achievement of designated financial and operational goals.

Policy with Respect to Deductibility of Compensation

Federal tax law limits the tax deduction that the Company may take with respect to the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer and the four other most highly compensated executive officers that exceeds $1.0 million, unless the compensation is "performance-based." Generally, the Company's stock incentive plans are designed to provide "performance-based" compensation that should minimize the impact of this tax limit.

The Human Resources Committee believes that all incentive compensation of the Company's current executive officers (except for the restricted stock and PARSUP programs) will qualify as a tax deductible expense when paid. The Human Resources Committee will continue to evaluate, however, whether it will approve annual compensation arrangements exceeding $1.0 million and whether it will attempt to qualify any such amounts for deductibility under the federal tax laws.

Conclusion

The Human Resources Committee believes that the Company's executive compensation program described in this report serves the interests of the Company's stockholders. Pay delivered to executives is intended to be linked to, and commensurate with, Company performance and with stockholder expectations. The Human Resources Committee notes that the compensation philosophy should be measured over a period sufficiently long to determine whether strategy development and implementation are in line with, and responsive to, stockholder expectations.

SECTION 16(A) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's executive officers and directors and persons who beneficially own more than 10% of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the New York Stock Exchange. Based solely on our review of those forms and certain written representations from reporting persons, we believe that in 2004 all of our executive officers, directors, and greater than 10% beneficial owners were in compliance with all applicable filing requirements.
